

Acknowledgements

World Refugee Day Advisory Committee

Canadian Centre for Victims of Torture, Canadian Red Cross,
Christie Refugee Welcome Centre, COSTI Immigrant Services,
Don Valley LIP (TNO), Sojourn House,
United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees

Special Thanks

Huda Bukhari, Mario Calla, Melissa Coward, Tina Edan, Debbie Hill-
Corrigan, Rana Khan, Prince Sibanda, Goran Simic, Jean Suh, Kerri
Sylvester, Mary Pam Vincer

Volunteers

Romy Algeria, Qasem Ali Ali, Noor Ahmed, Carole Blake, Corey Chad
Cicerelli, Lakech Damenu, Mary Henri, Nika Jabbarova, Jasmine Janes,
Josie Marchese, Candace McCool, Jodiann Morgan, Mulsema Noori, Nahed Rostayee, Wendy Tu, Rania Youssef

<LIPS>

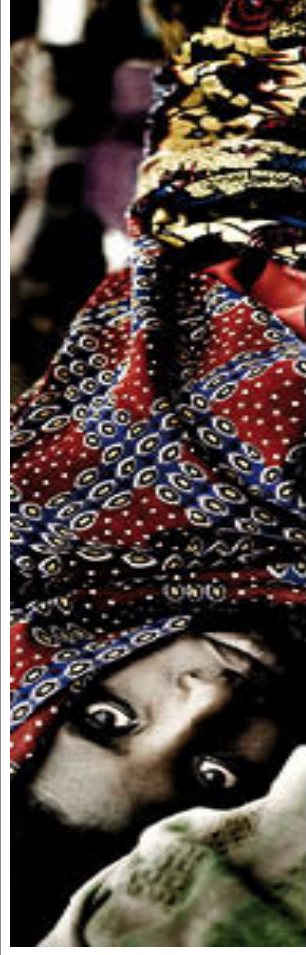

BUILDING A FUTURE FOR REFUGEES The UN Refugee Agency

Yonge Dundas
Square

11:00-4:00

This year 2011 will mark the 60th anniversary of the 1951 Convention relating to the Status of Refugees and World Refugee Day on June 20 will celebrate this significant anniversary with the "1 Campaign".
The campaign seeks to recognize that of the more than 10 million refugees of concern to UNHCR, even "1 refugee without hope / a safe haven / shelter.... is Too Many".

There are over 10 million refugees who have lost everything.

1 refugee without hope is too many.

UNHCR
The UN Refugee Agency

Schedule of Events

12:00 - 12:10 World Refugee Day Proclamation and Official Opening
Rana Khan, UNHCR

12:10 - 12:40 Dance (Sashar Zarif Dancers)
A multi-disciplinary artist, Sashar Zarif received his formal academic training in performing arts at Azerbaijan Conservatory of Music and Dance. He continues his Fine Arts studies at York University, Toronto where he is currently a course director in the Faculty of Fine Arts, Department of Dance

12:40 - 1:10 Saboor Tabesh
A well-known Afghani folklore musician, who has been performing for over 21 years

1:10 - 1:30 UNHCR/COSTI Child and Youth Poetry Contest on Refugees and Human Rights Award Ceremony

1:30 - 2:00 Donné Roberts
Born in Madagascar, raised and educated in Moscow and Toronto, where he now lives, Dieudonné Roberts is a singer, song writer and guitarist who won a Juno Award in 2005 for his contribution to the African Guitar Summit Project and has recently performed some of his new material at the 2010 Winter Olympics.

2:00 - 2:20 Chinese Dancers

2:40 - 3:00 Spoken Word Artist
Lishai Peel

Rhythmic Drumming
Group drumming by Terri Segal, an expressive arts facilitator and founder of Ritimik, dedicated to sharing the benefits of creative expression.

Test Your Knowledge of Refugees! Quizzes and Prizes every hour from 12:00.